

Werner Buskermolen

Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer

Werner Buskermolen leads the People team at HERE Technologies and serves on the Management Board, bringing over 20 years of HR experience to the role. As CHRO, he advises on all people-related and organizational matters, ensuring the talent strategy aligns with the company's vision for a best-in-class global, inclusive workplace. His remit also includes Workplace Management and Corporate Communications.

Before taking on the CHRO role, Werner was responsible for HR Operations and Talent Acquisition at HERE, uniting all HR operations and regional consultancy work into one single team.

Prior to joining HERE in 2016, Werner worked at Informatica, where he held several roles, most recently as Senior Director of HR for EMEA. Before that, he spent over five years at NetApp as EMEA Senior Manager of Talent Acquisition. He also held various consulting roles in the HR field.

He holds a degree in Commercial Economics from the College of Europa (Europa College).
